

Amy Gelber

Web site: <http://www.amygelberpottery.com>

Email: amyjogelber@hotmail.com

Amy is excited to share her vision of art as an expression of peace with the residents of Orange County. She brings a lifetime of artistic expression and over 10 years of ceramic experience to Hillsborough. Amy's resume includes a Bachelor of Arts from UNC-CH, a ceramics degree from Haywood Community College, an apprenticeship under renowned potter Sarah Rolland and an artist-in-residence at Shigaraki Ceramic Institute in Japan.

From her studio Amy creates dramatic functional work including: Pitchers, Platters, Bowls, Teapots, Planters, Vases, Mugs and Bakers.

Amy also specializes in creating sculptural works that represent her artistic vision. Her most recent effort is entitled Ceramic Peace. Some of these pieces are for sale at the Churton Street Gallery in Downtown Historic Hillsborough.